

The Car Insurance System defines the operational relationships between the insurance company and its customers. It handles the complex workflow of evaluating and processing a car accident claim. The activity diagram models this step-by-step business process, showcasing decision branches for policy validation and parallel activities for damage evaluation and report checking.

System 3: Car Insurance System - Activity

